MACKEY ASKED TO EXPLAIN TO COURT

He Is Alleged to Have Interfered With an Immunity Order.

Alexandria, Va., March 21 .- Accordng to a ruling of the court, Commonwealth's Attorney Crandal Mackey, of Alexandria county, may be required to explain to Judge Barley, sitting on he bench of the State Circuit Court. the bench of the State Circuit Court, whether he meant to interfere with the immunity from arrest for inisdemeanor of William F, McCormick, an enlisted man in the army, brought from Texase to testify in a suit before that court.

Captain Warren Dean, of the Filteenth Cavalry, brought into court yesterday by the sheriff under failure to respond to the summons of Judge Barley, explained that he acted at the request of the Commonwealth's attorney in sending a squad to the court-house to put McCormick under milliary arrest and bring him to Fort Myer, a plan which the court defeated.

During the progress of the civil suit Judge Barley had been advised that it was the purpose of the county authorities to arrest McCormick on the charge of pawning a friend's ring. From the bench he notified the propose to have the witness cheated of his right to immunity. Defiance of such a mandate of the court might result in charges of contempt of court. The matter go avover until Monday.

McCormick was conductor of the Great Falls and Old Dominion car which coilided with an automobile June 11, 1911, causing the death of Henry Mitchell and Fred Kitchen. He subsequently enlisted in the army and was serving his term at Fort Bilss Texas.

Suit was brought against the railway company. McCormick's testimeny was wanted. He was brought into the jurisdiction of the court on order of the War Department.

At the time that McCormick enlisted, it is alleged, he was wanted on the whether he meant to interfere with the War Department.

At the time that McCormick enlisted, it is alleged, he was wanted on the charge of pawning the ring, a misdemeanor, and that a warrant for his arrest was issued but never served. Learning of his presence in the jurisdiction, the authorities were expected to attempt service of the warrant as soon as the witness was excused by the court.

told Captain Dean that the military authorities could arrest the witness and hold him for the civil authorities.

The matter has interested a number of lawyers here, and they say that under the Virginia law a witness may always be arrested for a crime previous, ly committed; that if this were not the case, many persons who violate the law would escape by a technicality.
